

Home Delivery Distribution Opportunity

The Dallas Morning News is seeking individuals interested in a Home Delivery Distribution opportunity, as an Independent Contractor, in the Dallas area.

We prefer individuals with experience in managing several carriers, or with experience in newspaper management; however, supervisory experience in route management will be considered.

Distribution areas average 100,000 deliveries per week, and average annual gross revenues of $954,000.

If you are interested in obtaining more information, please send a brief overview of your experience to:

Andy Nelson
Assistant Circulation Director
The Dallas Morning News
anelson@dallasnews.com